

NEWS FROM SAN FRANCISCO

September 18, 2015

Greetings from the DAAD Information Center (IC) in San Francisco! I hope you had a wonderful summer, whether you traveled far or stayed at home to recharge your batteries. Ready or not, the new semester or quarter has already begun on most campuses or will soon begin. To all students, administrators, and faculty, I wish you a successful, interesting and, don't forget, fun academic year.

In this newsletter issue, find out the schedule for the IC San Francisco, including study abroad fairs, info tours, webinars, and a (Re) Discovering Germany workshop in Tempe, AZ. The new academic year also means that we have new Research and Young Ambassadors; I'm happy to introduce to you seven new Young and three new Research Ambassadors in the Western region of the United States.

There are some program changes regarding the Study Scholarship and Research Grants, as well as deadline changes for the Intensive Language Course Grant and the University Summer Course Grant, which I have summarized and highlighted in red for you below. You can find all relevant information and deadlines at www.daad.org and, of course, in our brand new Scholarships and Grant Brochure.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact me at daadsf@daad.org with any questions you have. And please be in touch if you'd like to connect while I'm on the road.

All the best,
Hanni

DAAD Young Ambassadors 2015-16

DAAD Young Ambassadors are North American undergrads who have recently studied in Germany and are interested in promoting study in Germany at their home universities. They represent DAAD at study abroad fairs, speak to students at info sessions, and are an overall wonderful resource on studying in Germany and DAAD scholarships. Do you have a dedicated student who studied in Germany? Are you interested in supporting the student in his/her effort in promoting studying in Germany and DAAD grants? Every year, we ask Study Abroad offices in North America to nominate their candidates. Please check our website for more information <https://daad.org/ambassadors>.

There are seven new Young Ambassadors in the Western region of the United States. Click on their names below to read more about these young academics and their experiences in Germany.

(Re) Discovering Germany Workshop in Tempe, AZ

(Re)Discovering Germany will be held for the first time in Arizona, on the campus of Arizona State University. It is designed as a workshop for faculty, staff, administrators and universities to learn about current opportunities and funding available in Germany.

Come and get the latest information on research funding and collaboration, student internships and fellowships, and opportunities for institutional relationships. There will be time for questions and discussion with a networking lunch reception to follow.

The workshop format will feature:

- Welcome remarks by Dr. Helge Jordan, Honorary Consul of Arizona and Vice Director of the German

American Chamber of Commerce

- Presentation of programs and funding through Cultural Vistas and DAAD
- Q&A discussion with Summer Internship Program to Germany and RISE Alumni
- Networking luncheon and information fair

Registration is free but limited. Please note that the workshop is not intended for students but do feel free to invite any colleagues who might be interested in attending.

Registration link: <https://rdgaz15.eventbrite.com>

Workshop Location Details

The workshop will be held in the library of the historic Old Main building on the campus of ASU. Further location details and directions for parking will be sent to all registered attendees prior to the workshop.
