

DAAD Webinar Series 2018

A photograph of the main staircase of the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT). The staircase is wide, with white marble balustrades and red carpeted steps. In the center, there is a large white statue of a figure. Several people are walking up and down the stairs, some carrying papers. The background shows a grand entrance with large columns and a wooden door. The scene is well-lit by ornate gold-colored lamps with multiple white globe lights.
